Do you help your mother in housework? Are you a lazy person? Why do you say so? Everyone share the housework. But this poem tells us about two little animals who were lazy. They did not like to do any housework. Read and see what happened to them.

This poem has been included in the syllabus because children can associate house keeping with their daily activities. They also learn that laziness and selfishness are bad. This must be pointed out to them.

Note: Poem should be revised dramatically.

A mouse, Frog and a Little Red Hen,
